PRODUCT DETAILS

The Rivet Stool is a product that draws on Bill Amberg's experience and experiments into leather's capabilities as a load bearing structural material. The Rivet Stool is crafted from a single piece of wonderfully thick leather usually reserved for the footwear industry. With no internal structure the Rivet stool takes the material out of its expected context to produce a bold, lightweight, versatile, and robust item of furniture.

The Rivet Stool is handcrafted to order at Bill Amberg Studio's workshop in London. Our leadtime is normally 6-8 weeks.
